

COURSE OUTLINE

COURSE TITLE: The Skinny on Plastic Surgery

COURSE NUMBER: SEPX

CONTACT HOURS: 9.00

CIP:

1. Rationale, occupational need for course including target population:
For persons 55 or older to discern the need or viability for plastic surgery
2. Course Description:
Considering plastic surgery or just curious? A plastic surgeon gives fun, informative, accurate information, free of hype and distortion, for men and women; including face and body procedures.
3. Course Learning Outcomes:
The student will be enabled to better evaluate the need or viability for plastic surgery.
4. Methods of Student Evaluation Used:
Instructor Observation
Attendance
5. Methods of Presentation:
Lecture with Power Point
Question and Answer
6. Textbook, Demonstration, or Media Materials Needed:
Projector for computer.

7. Calendar of Events:

Major Topics:	Hours:
Intro. to evolution and history of plastic surgery, and the changing concept of beauty.	1.50
Plastic surgery of the face; how time and gravity affect the appearance. Surgical rejuvenation procedures using pre-and post-op photos.	1.50
Aesthetic assessment of the female breast and procedures to improve the appearance of the breast. The male breast will also be discussed. Pre-and post-op photos will be utilized.	1.50
This session will focus on the aesthetics of the abdomen and procedures to improve the appearance. Pre-and post-op photos will be utilized.	1.50
Focus is on anatomical distortions that result after massive weight loss, aesthetic assessment, and procedures to cosmetically rehabilitate the MWL patient.	1.50
Ask the doctor. This class will be based on input from the first 5 classes. At the end of each class, students will submit in writing what they would like for me to discuss. I will make a presentation to discuss the issues.	1.50
Total Hours:	9.00